

The Capable Child Confidentiality Policy

Information gathered in our work together is considered to be confidential. Both verbal information and written records about a child or family will not be shared with another party without the written consent of the child's legal guardian. Noted exceptions are as follows:

Abuse of Children

If a child states or suggests that he is being abused or is in danger of abuse, we are required by law to report this to the appropriate authorities.

Minors/ Guardianship

Parents or legal guardians of non-emancipated minor clients have the right to access the client's records. The nature of our work together is collaborative and parents or legal guardians will be kept informed of the work we are doing.

I agree to the above limits of confidentiality.
